ROOSEVELT ACTS ON REQUEST OF RUSSIAN GOVERNMENT.

Our Navel Authorities to Superintend Dismantling of Vessel and Repairs Made to Her and Hold Her Until War Ends-Disposition of Crew Unsettled.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.-The Russian armed transport Lena, whose presence in the harbor of San Francisco created an international flurry, will be disarmed and remain at the Golden Gate until the close of hostilities in the Far East.

Acting upon the written request of Capt. Berlinsky, the commander of the Lena, made under instructions from his Government at St. Petersburg, President Roosevelt to-day issued an order to this effect, and the incident, so far as its possible effect upon the friendly relations now existing between the United States and the two belligerents is concerned, may be regarded as closed. The following statement was made public at the State Department this

The President to-day issued an order through the acting Secretary of State, directing that the Russian armed transport Lena at San Francisco, be taken into custody by the naval authorities of the United States and disarmed. The main features of the conditions prescribed are that the Lena be taken to the Mare Island navy yard and there disarmed by removal of small guns, breech locks of large guns, small arms, ammunition and ordnance stores, and such other dismantlement as may be prescribed by the commandant of the navy yard; that the captain give a written guarantee that the Lena shalf not eave San Francisco until peace shall have been concluded; that the officers and crew shall be paroled not to leave San Francisco until some understanding as to their disposal may be reached between the United States Government and both the belligerents; that after disarmament the vessel may be removed to a private dock for such reasonable repairs as will make her seaworthy and preserve her in good condition during her detention, or may be so repaired at the navy yard, if the Russian commander should so elect; that while at a private dock the commandant of the navy yard at Mare Island shall have the custody of the ship and the repairs shall be overseen by the engineer officer to be detailed by the commandant, and that, when so repaired, if peace shall not then of the war.

This action has been taken on the written request of the commander of the Lena, addressed to Rear Admiral Goodrich, setting forth that as the vessel is incapable of putting to sea without needful repairs she must disarm, and asking that needful repairs be permitted after disarmament.

The Secretary of the Navy has telegraphed the President's order to San Francisco and given instructions to Admiral Goodrich and to Capt. McCalla, the commandant of the Mare Island Navy Yard, to carry out its pro-

HER CAPTAIN'S REQUEST GRANTED.

As stated this morning in Washington despatches to THE SUN, Capt. Berlinsky told Admiral Goodrich unofficially soon after the arrival of the Lena at San Francisco that he did not desire to make temporary repairs and leave the Golden Gate to face almost certain capture or destruction by the enemy, and he thought the only wise course to pursue was that which included the disarmament and dismantlement of his vessel and her internment at San Francisco until the end of the war.

Capt. Berlinsky had no authority to take this step, however, without consulting his Government, and for a time yesterday the cables to St. Petersburg and the telegraph lines between San Francisco and Bar Harbor, the summer home of Count Cassini, the Russian Ambassador, were kept busy with messages on the Lena case.

President Roosevelt, through Admiral Goodrich, urged Capt. Berlinsky to secure an immediate reply. Finally, this morning, Capt. Berlinsky notified Admiral Goodric that his Government had instructed him to disarm his vessel and remain at San Francisco after making proper arrangements with regard to repairs to the Lena and the disposition of her crew. The officials of the State and Navy departments in Washington were very glad to terminate the Lena incident by granting the desired permission, and Capt. Berlinsky was immediately informed to that effect.

The details with regard to repairs and to the disposition of her crew were agreed upon as a result of a number of telegraph messages that passed between the State Department and Count Cassini during the day.

Theodere Hansen, First Secretary of the Russian Embassy, who reached Washington this morning to handle the Lena case for his Government, found that there was practically nothing for him to do. All arrangements had either been made or were so nearly consummated that his aid was not necessary, and he contented himself with calling at the State Department and paying his respects to Acting Secretary of State Adee.

JAPANESE MINISTER SATISFIED

Kogoro Takahira, the Japanese Minister apparently felt confident that whatever action the United States Government might take on the Lena affair would be fair and just to both belligerents, and did not call at the State Department to-day. He was informed by note from Mr. Adee of the permission granted the Russian Government to disarm and dismantle the Lena and interne her at San Francisco until the close of hostilities, and expressed himself as well satisfied with this termination of the incident.

Mr. Takahira was also informed that no immediate decision had been reached by the United States as to the disposition of the crew of the vessel, and that pending such representations by the Russian and Japanese diplomatic representatives on the subject the officers and men would be quartered on Angel Island under parole got to leave San Francisco.

It is probable that the Russian Ambassador will ask that the crew of the Lena be permitted to return to Russia by way of New York. Taking the case of the Russian cruiser Askold at Shanghai as a precedent, it is very probable that the Japanese Minister will protest against such action.

The Japanese authorities have asserted, in support of their position in the Askold case, that the crews of Russian ships disarmed and interned in neutral ports broke the paroles given to them and entered the Russian naval service immediately on . Beck's Double Gets Five Years Sentence. their return to their own country. This detail, however, in the light of what was accomplished to-day, is comparatively unimportant, and Government officials in Washington have no doubt that it will be settled in good time and to the satisfaction of both belligerents.

RELIEF IN OFFICIAL CIRCLES.

The fact that the incident may be regarded as closed has resulted in a feeling of intense relief in official circles, and there is a fervent hope that the reports contained in newspaper despatches that one or more other Russian auxiliary cruisers are now

San Francisco in order that Russia might test the attitude of the United States in regard to the belligerents, through whatever efforts might be made to protect Amer ican neutrality, is still entertained in some quarters here. It is admitted, however even by those who have that idea that if such was the intention of the Russian Government the attempt to put it in force was very clumsily made. Officials of the State and Navy Depart ments who had charge of the Lena incident are frankly of the opinion that the attitude of the United States in the matter was absolutely impartial.

While they are admittedly pleased that the question of fact involved in the "reasonable time for repairs"—which until the request from Capt. Berlinsky to disarm and interne his vessel was received was the main point at issue-was not brought up for further decision, they are confident that even had the United States been called upon to deal with this more delicate phase of the situation neither of the belligerents would have had just cause for complaint.

VAIN SEARCH FOR MORE RUSSIAN SHIPS. SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 15 .- Owing to reports that Russian cruisers were hovering off the coast, lying in wait for merchantmen, Admiral Goodrich sent the cruiser Boston to sea this morning, partly to give her recently repaired machinery a test and partly to determine whether there are any Russian or Japanese cruisers in the offing. The Boston proceeded west of the Farallones for fifty miles, keeping in touch with the flagship New York by wireless telegraph, but up to a late hour nothing suspicious had been sighted.

The Boston will return to port in the morning, and to-morrow she and the gunboat Bennington will sail for Magdalena Bay for target practice. The New York and Marblehead will remain here indefinitely, as the Navy Department has been aroused to the necessity of keeping a war vessel at this port. If the Lena had arrived a day later none of Uncle Sam's ships would have been here, and there would have been no way of enforcing the Government's orders.

Admiral Goodrich received orders this afternoon to have the Lena taken to the Mare Island Navy Yard and dismantled. All of her ammunition and the breech plugs of her guns will be landed, thus making her harmless. She may be permitted taken back to the Mare Island Navy Yard to make such repairs as necessary to keep her in condition, but no additions to her armament will be permitted.

What disposition will be made of the Lena's officers and crew is still uncertain, but it is generally believed here that they will be interned with the ship. They will be treated as though the ship were lying at anchor under normal conditions in a friendly port. All ordinary courtesies have been exchanged between the Lena's officers and those of the American squadron This afternoon the ward officers of the Lens were guests at dinner on board the New York of the flagship's ward room officers. Insurance rates here are still high and shipping men are uneasy. They say the mystery of the Lena's visit has not been explained, and they fear depredations by other Russian vessels. NOVIK'S CREW ON LENA.

LONDON, Sept. 15 .- A despatch from Tokio says it is believed there that the cruiser Lena, now in San Francisco harbor, called at Korsakoff, after her departure from Vladivostok, and took on board the crew of the cruiser Novik, which was driven ashore at that place on Aug. 21 by ships of Admiral Kamimura's squadron.

TOKIO, Sept. 15.-Keen interest is taken in the case of the Russian transport Lena, now at San Francisco. One theory is that her despatch to the American port was intended to test the attitude of the United States on the questions of international law involved.

RUSSIAN RESERVES BALK. Mobilization in the Southern Provinces at a Standstill.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. LONDON, Sept. 16 .- The Odessa correspondent of the Standard says that the order for the mobilization of the reserves in the southern provinces of Russia has caused enthusiasm anywhere. Eight thousand reservists are missing in Kherson. It is understood that they are mostly Jews, who have emigrated.

There are 3,000 absentees in Ekaterinosday and 3,000 in Bessarabia. There is not only disaffection among the reservists, but it is spreading to the officers. Seventeen of the latter have been arrested in the Kieff district. They will be tried by courtmartial for openly declaring that the war is over, and that it would be a senseless waste of life to withstand the victorious

Japanese further. Peasants and artisans have met and declared that they will not answer the summons to mobilize, and that if they are compelled to mobilize they will not fight Among the officers the opinion prevails that Russia was squarely beaten at Liaoyang and that this precludes the hope of a final Russian victory.

RUSSO-GERMAN PACT UNTIMELY. Inspired Statement in German Paper That

It's Too Early to Talk About It. Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. BERLIN, Sept. 15-There have been many comments, most of them angry repudiating the London Times's recent article on the alleged Russo-German compact. The Government has said nothing, but the Cologne Gazette prints what is probably an officially communicated statement saying that in the present position of affairs, when it is impossible to forecast the developments of the war, it would be risky to conclude an agreement based on the anticipation of peace.

This is so obvious, the paper adds, that f is needless to discuss it, but, unfortunatery, it must be recognized that the statements on the subject, which were primarily meant for Japan, must arouse distrust of Germany in that country and meet with undeserved consideration.

Tokio Looks to Him to Retrieve Himself for Not Crushing Kuropatkin -More Troops Being Rushed Forward -Assault on Port Arthur Renewed

Special Cable Despatches to TRE SUN. LONDON, Sept. 16 .- The Tokio correspondent of the Express says that Field Marshal Oyama has received the most rigid instructions to resume the offensive as soon as his troops have recuperated and the roads will permit, and to attack Gen. Kuropatkin before the winter begins. Should the Russians retire from Mukden to avoid a battle Marshal Oyama will pursue them with his three armies.

The collapse of Marshal Oyama's scheme o surround Gen. Kuropatkin at Liaoyang caused this order, which, it is stated, was inspired by the Emperor. The General Staff is bitterly disappointed by the escape of Gen. Kuropatkin, and Marshal Oyama must retrieve himself, for according to the Japanese view his strategy failed. Consequently a desperate attack is to be expected, which if directed against Tieling instead of Mukden must be accompanied by terrible slaughter.

The entire force is now suffering from absolute exhaustion and needs sleep equally with food It may be several weeks before Marshal ('yama is ready to advance. It is, however, certain that the Japanese do not intend to cose the present campaign until they make another desperate effort to crush the Russian army.

Transports are now loading troops and supplies at Kobe and Hiroshima. These will be landed at Yingkow and sent north on the railroad. It is understood that at least 100,000 men and 100 guns will be added to the Japanese army before Oct. 1. A majority of these are seasoned troops from northern Japan who are able to withstand the Manchurian winter.

JAPS ACTIVE AT PORT ARTHUR. They Continue to Attack Fortress and Build New Fortifications. Special Cable Despatches to THE SUN.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 15. - Admiral Alexieff forwards the following despatch from Gen. Stoessel, the commander at Port Arthur:

"The Japanese are actively constructing fortifications on Sampson Mountain, and are also fortifying positions near Port Arthur strongly, mounting new batteries nightly. They are also searching for mines in Sakhe Bay. The Japanese are issuing proclamations addressed to the Russians, demanding that they surrender.' Gen. Stoessel regards these proclamations as indicative of the consciousness of failure on the part of the Japanese. The report "On the night of Sept. 1 the Japanese bombarded High Mountain and Long Mountain. We simultaneously discovered an advance of their troops, upon whom we fired, stopping the attack in the course of an hour with trifling losses. A Japanese battery fell upon our automatic fougasses and suffered loss. "On Sept. 3 the enemy received reenforce ments west of the fortress. They continue to bombard the forts, the interior fortress and the port. They fired 250 shells into the town last night. Meanwhile their squadron remained in view of the fortress." Tokio, Sept. 15.-With complete quietude in the north, public attention is again fixed on Port Arthur. There are rumors of impending attacks on a large scale and of the straitened condition of the garrison. but none of them can be traced to an authentic source. SHANGHAI, Sept. 15 .- It is reported that two Japanese crept from the intrenchments to the Ponlungshan fort at Port Arthur and threw bombs which caused so much destruction that the Russians fled and the Japanese occupied the place. DEMANDS JAPAN WOULD MAKE.

Reported She Will Entertain Peace Pro pesals When Saghalten Is Taken.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. LONDON, Sept. 16 .- The Telegraph's correspondent at Tientsin says he hears from a trustworthy source that Baron Komura, the Japanese Minister of Foreign Affairs, has issued a circular stating that Japan intends, when Port Arthur is captured, to hand it and the whole of the Liaotung Peninsula over to the Chinese, who, it is understood, will declare Port Arthur a free

The correspondent says that he also learns that Japan wishes, after Mukden is occupied, to take Saghalien. She will then be prepared to entertain peace proposals, which must include the following points:

First-An international syndicate to take over the Manchurian Railway and operate it as a strictly commercial enterprise. Second-Russia to pay an indemnity equivalent to $500,000,000. Third-Russia to hand over all her ships in Chinese waters to Japan.

The Japanese would be willing to lease Saghalien to an American company for $25,000,000. The correspondent mars his own story by adding that all these reports must be taken for what they are worth.

JAPS SAY FLAG WAS ABUSED. Assert That Russians Displayed Japanese Colors When Fort Was Attacked.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN Tokio, Sept. 15 .- It is reported that during the fighting on Aug. 25 the Russians abused the Japanese flag. Japanese troops were advancing upon a fort, which there upon displayed the Japanese colors.

The Japanese, thinking that the place ad been captured, did not fire. When they approached the fort they received a severe fire that nearly annihilated one company. The Nichi Nichi reports the capture of a number of Russian documents at Liaoyang, including Gen. Stoessel's instructions to his men to keep under cover and to reserve their fire until the Japanese approached to within 100 yards, and then pick off the officers first. Russian officers are instructed to occupy advanced blinds. The General encourages his men to remain calm behind their defences. Despatches to the newspapers here state that the Japanese troops are not allowed inside the walls at Liaoyang. The gates are guarded by Japanese sentries. Chinese families are returning to the city. Two correspondents, who were with the Russians, have joined the Japanese forces at Liaoyang. Four hundred Chinese were killed during the engagement there. An English missionary remained in the city and is caring for the wounded Chinese.

The Kokumin encourages the people to take a hopeful view of the situation. It says that Japan is engaged in a life or death struggle and patience to the very end is necessary. The only way to victory is to put the entire nation on a war basis and to increase the taxes. Every one should cooperate to maintain the national existence. The paper suggests that the authorities accord better treatment to the newspapers.

Fifty-nine returned cards in the annual invitation tournament of the Essex County Country Club yesterday, played over the picturesque 5,200-yard course in Hutton Park, Orange, while a score more set out but did not finish.
